DANVILLE MARKET STILL MAIN- TAINS LEAD FOR HIGH PRICES!

(Wednesday's Advocate)
The biggest tobacco sale of the season was held on the Danville breaks yesterday. Another big sale was held today and wagons are arriving from all directions this morning and another big sale is assured for tomorrow. This morning Edward Simpson, of Garrard county, got 54 cents a pound for one basket and a big average for his whole crop. R. L. Berry and A. J. Coy, of Lincoln county, yesterday received an average of practically 40 cents a pound for their entire crop. They got $1,200 for a wagon load. From $800 to $1,200 per wagon load are often received. Probably the wildest enthusiasm of the year prevailed on the breaks yesterday when banner record breaking prices were paid for the weed by the buyers. Two new independent buyers have arrived on the market. Messrs. Edwards Brothers, of North Carolina, and they are making things hum when it comes their grades. Danville is still maintaining her great lead for high prices that was established early in December. Growers are highly elated over the continued upward tendency of prices and if it were not for the scarcity of labor a record acreage would be cultivated next season. Among the hundreds of good sales the following are a few:

ATLANTA A HUSTLING CITY

When the cotton crop sells high there are good times in Georgia. Last year's crop is selling at 30 cents per pound, and as a consequence things are booming all over the good State of Georgia, while Atlanta, the capital city, is prospering as she has never before. It was my pleasure to spend several days there last week, a guest of my brother, T. R. Walton, who resided in Stanford some years in the long ago, and who is remembered by many of the older citizens of the county. It may not interest any to know that my stay with him was very delightful, but it was and I am thankful for the privilege of seeing him again in the flesh. Time has dealt gently with "Tom," as he was known, and he looks about like he did when he left Stanford. He is a dyed-in-the-wool Atlanta booster and that city has no citizen who is prouder of his home town than he. His faith in the "Gate City of the South" is shown in his investing his last dollar in Atlanta property. He says Atlanta bank stock is good, but Atlanta dirt is better, and he wants all of it he can get.

I have for 20 years made occasional visits to Atlanta and have watched the city grow and it has lost no time in doing so. Wiped out by the war of 50 years ago, its strides for bigger and better Atlanta are little less than marvelous. No city, South or elsewhere, can give the finer resident section, while the business part at once impresses the sight-seer that everybody is doing something and that each person seems to be successful. Since my last visit of some two years ago, much improvement has been made, notwithstanding the $5,000,000 fire of last May. Cities inhabited by fainter-hearted people might have been set back to a point of giving up, but not so with the Atlantians. They are rebuilding the burnt district and replacing the buildings with far better ones than those that went up in the smoke.

The fire was the biggest the South has ever had. 71 blocks were destroyed and 1,560, or perhaps 1,000 or more than there are in Stanford. The burnt district is about a mile wide and extends for a mile and half. The loss, as stated above, was fixed at $5,000,000, with $3,000,000 insurance. The Atlanta people made up over $100,000 for the fire sufferers. Little or none of the contents of the homes and business houses were saved.

Atlanta is a city of hotels and she has some of the very finest to be found in the South. Of recent erection are the Georgian Terrace, The Ponce de Leon, The Almay, The Piedmont, The Winfrey, while The Terminal, The Kimball and The Aragon have all been added to and made better in many ways. Another noticeable feature is the large number of elegant apartment houses. Some of the largest almost cover a block and they are among the handsomest buildings in the city. The biggest as well as finest of the apartment houses is now under construction. It will cover an entire block and contain 36 fine apartments, some of these having as many as eight rooms. It promises to be the handsomest building of its kind in the South.

There is not much doing politically in Georgia just now, but when it comes time to elect a successor to Senator Hardwick there will be. The Senator has misrepresented his State and the people are as sure to rebuke him by defeat as anything can be. He belongs to the bunch that President Wilson referred to as "a little group of wilful men," and paid his respects in a rather scathing manner to. He did not voice the sentiments of his constituency when he failed to stand with the President, nor has he done so on divers other occasions. He is a "dead cock in the pit," and his burial will follow when his term expires. Senator Hoke Smith, President Cleveland's Secretary of the Interior, is in not too good repute with the Georgia voters either and he may find it hard to succeed himself when election day rolls around. Leaders are casting about to find a couple of men who will take better care of the trust reposed in them than either Senator Hardwick or Senator Smith has, and when the Georgians set their heads to do a thing, they usually do it. If Hon. Asa Candler would consent to run for Senator he could defeat Senator Hardwick as easy as falling off a log, but he won't do so.

In fact the maker of Coca-Cola does not love the political game, and he would not now be holding the office of mayor of Atlanta were it his desire to serve his people. He is the richest man by odds in the South, and the pitance of $5,000 a year he gets for acting as mayor he divides equally between the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. Mr. Candler is a big-little man.

728.00 AND TEN DAYS

Joy Stewart, colored who was arrested Tuesday night as he was returning from Lebanon with nine quarts of whisky, was tried before Judge R. L. Davison Thursday afternoon and fined $75 and given ten days in jail. Chief of Police George T. Wood and Deputy Sheriff R. T. Lewis took Stewart in tow just as he stepped from the train, and opening his suit case found nine full quarts of whisky. They placed him in jail where he remained until his trial. Messrs. Wood and Lewis are doing some excellent work in running down those who infract the law and they should have the support of every good citizen in Stanford and vicinity. A better support given the officer the better work he is able to do.

A jury was secured from Madison county to try Porter Eubank, who killed Henry M. Ringo at Mt. Sterling.

He stands only about five feet, six inches, and weighs less than 140 pounds; his voice would be more creditable to a woman than to a man, but he is the "doingsome doer." South of the Mason and Dixon line. He is a very strong Methodist and has done much for Methodism with his means. He recently made a donation of $1,000.00 to Emory College, while a short while before he put up most of the money that went to the building of one of Atlanta's handsomest churches. A few months since he set his head toward building what will be known as the Wesleyan Hospital. He offered to put up $3 every time a dollar was raised elsewhere. $75,000 was secured and Mr. Candler put up $224,000. His cotton warehouse in Atlanta is about the biggest thing in the town. It covers 40 acres and the buildings, all of concrete, occupy 200,000 square feet. Several of the warehouses are used by the government for the storing of supplies. It will be remembered that it was Mr. Candler, who a few years ago when cotton was very low, offered to loan to the raisers $30,000,000 in order that they might hold their crops for better prices. Many took advantage of the offer and later sold their cotton for much better prices.

Camp Gordon is the name of the cantonment some ten miles from the heart of Atlanta. It was named for Gen. John B. Gordon, the famous old Confederate general, who has several times lectured to Stanford audiences and who has joined Lee, Jackson and others over the river. There are some 40,000 Sammies at Camp Gordon and they are a fine looking body of men and Atlantians say they are the best behaved lot ever gotten together. Thousands of them visit the city daily, but there is scarcely ever a loud word from them, and such a thing as an arrest by the civil authorities is almost unknown. On the other side of the city is the detention camp, where between 700 and 1,000 interned Germans are being held and treated almost as well as our boys who are training for service. I was informed that the fare is very similar and that the only thing denied the German sailors is their liberty.

The camp is surrounded by two barbed wire fences 15 feet or more high, and the wire is charged with sufficient electricity to burn a fellow up if he touches it with his bare hand. A company of soldiers is on guard day and night, while watchmen in the several high towers are prepared to give notice if they see anything wrong going on. Each tower is supplied with a searchlight and when it is necessary the camp can be made as light as day. The Germans were enjoying the sun and were exercising by playing all sorts of outdoor games when I was at the camp. The good treatment of the Germans by our people is far from what they give those who have the misfortune to be captured by that brutal nation. But if we were even unkind to those captured we would be little better than the men who do the bidding of the damnable ruler of Germany.

Atlanta had a six or seven weeks' meeting conducted by Evangelist Billy Sunday during the latter part of the year and the ex-ball player stirred up the people there from center to circumference. He preached in an enormous tabernacle built purposely for him, and which comfortably seated 14,000 or more people. The tabernacle cost $20,000 and the lumber in it has been sold to a North-lumber party for $2,500 and will be shipped to Chicago. The other expenses were about $12,500 and $20,000 was turned over to the evangelist, making $50,000 the meeting cost. And now the question is—was the game worth the candle? Hundreds "hit the trail," as Mr. Sunday speaks of making confessions, but unfortunately many of those who promise to do better during exciting conditions do not stick like the fellow who has made up his mind and in a quiet way registers for service on the Lord's side.

While I do not agree with the wag who wrote the couplet,
"Georgia girl, none more surpasses,
Still I am pretty well convinced that Atlanta has some mighty good looking women. Of course they do not compare with the Kentucky article, and had I come from another State I might have seen things differently. Black eyes, black hair and rosy cheeks are a good combination, but most of the women are thin and have not that substantial, dashing appearance of the first ladies of the land—those of Kentucky.

Hermann Berkman, of New York, arrived in Atlanta about the time I did, but I did not have the pleasure of meeting the disloyal scamp. He was taken to the Federal prison for treasonable utterances and will remain in durance vile for two years. Berkman is a side partner of Emma Goldman, who would long since been hung or shot had she not belonged to the weaker sex.

HEMP BREAKING

By reason of the rain we failed to get our hemp machine to Stanford court day for demonstration, but at any time you have an opportunity to see the machine work would be glad if you would call us, and we will inform you as to where and when we will be at work. If you are interested in future hemp growing, you should by all means see the operation of this machine. You will find that it will break from two to three thousand pounds, with only two men to operate, depending on the condition and quality of the hemp to be handled. It will handle from four to five thousand pounds of tow per day, such as rakings of the field and etc. In this machine the dust does not interfere with the operators, as in our old machine. Short hemp can be handled to good satisfaction.

It has been reported that wet hemp will follow rolls, but when you call to see this machine, remind us and we will soak a hunch of hemp in water and let you decide.

Under existing factory conditions, we are unable to build machines at the present for the market; but as soon as we can get factory work done we will be ready for you. It will pay you to investigate if you expect to raise hemp hereafter.

This machine has power plant built in with machine and can be drawn from shock to shock by two horses, so the moment you stop you are ready for work. The machine and power plant complete only weighs about thirty-five hundred pounds. Seeing is believing. Investigate for yourself. J. S. & A. W. Holtzclaw.

THE LIBERTY SERVICE LEAGUE

The object of the Liberty Service League is to promote the business welfare of every citizen of Lincoln county; to have at heart the welfare of every boy in service or in training; to give words of cheer to the homes made sad; to conserve on lines of food and clothing; to exert all energy to the production of more to eat; to encourage the idle to action; to stand in the open for right against wrong; democracy against plutocracy; liberty against Kaiserism. Can there be any thing but success for an organization with such laudable aims and purposes? Is there any reason why every good male citizen of the county cannot and should not want to become a member? The Interior Journal can give many reasons why such an organization is helpful to any community and will do so from time to time.

FINED $10 FOR VAGRANCY

Jeff Bryant, who was arrested Wednesday on the charge of vagrancy, was tried before Judge T. A. Rice Thursday afternoon and given a fine of $10, which he paid. It is hoped that Bryant will profit by the experience he has had and hereafter will give himself some exercise by putting in a few days' work every now and then. Allen Hill, also colored, and who also was arrested on the charge of vagrancy, will have his trial next Thursday. Frank Thurman, who admitted that he purloined a fine old gobble belonging to J. L. Beazley, was held over to circuit court in $100.

IDLENESS MUST VAMOOSE

Idleness must vamoose if the bill introduced by Senator Morris becomes a law. His measure is designed to prevent idleness among men during the continuation of the war. From the time the act becomes a law until six weeks after the close of the present war, every able-bodied man between the ages of 16 and 60, except bona fide students during school terms who fail or refuse to work at least thirty-six hours a week shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. County judges, justices of the peace, mayors and police judges are given jurisdiction to try offenders.

HELD OVER UNTIL COURT

Sam Cloyd, colored, who was caught in the freight depot at McKinney under suspicious circumstances, was tried before Judge T. A. Rice Thursday and held over to the grand jury. Cloyd came into the depot and while the backs of J. T. Butler and M. Durham, of the office force, were turned, slipped into the freight department for the purpose, it is thought, of attempting to appropriate some of the freight that had accumulated there.

Cut This Out—It Is Worth Money

Don't miss this. Cut out this slip, enclose with five cents to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds and croup. Foley Kidney Pills and Foley Cathartic Tablets. Sold Everywhere.

HEAVY WIND TUESDAY

The heavy wind of Tuesday did considerable damage in the county and town as well. Hundreds of shocks of hemp were blown down and scattered broadcast, trees were up-rooted and other damage done. The glass in one of the court-house windows was broken into many pieces by the awning frame, blowing against it.

CIRCUIT COURT NEXT MONDAY

Next Monday will be first day of the February term of the Lincoln court and if the weather is good it is likely that a large crowd will be in town. The docket for the February term is not a heavy one.

MANY TO JUNCTION CITY

The L. & N., during the time it has had an agency in this city, has sold to Junction City 31,577 tickets. It has sold the next largest number to Crab Orchard—20,005.

You cannot enjoy a good meal if you have indigestion. Mio-na stomach tablets are guaranteed by The Penny Drug Store to relieve the worst case of stomach trouble.

FLOUR, MEAL, SUBSTITUTES

A report has been circulated that buyers of flour could buy three pounds of flour with every pound of meal or substitute, but Food Administrator Sackett's order printed below, shows how erroneous the report is:

"It is not true that anything but pound for pound is permitted in the State of Kentucky, outside of the cities of Covington and Newport, which are within the retail delivery district of Cincinnati. Anything to the contrary published in the paper is erroneous and our dealers will find it very much to their disadvantage if they have permitted their flour to get away from them without insisting on the consumer's taking the substitutes on the basis of 'one to one.'"

The question of exchange of wheat for flour by the farmers has also been discussed, and that is also made clear in another letter from Food Administrator Sackett, which is here given:

"About the flour due a customer for wheat received last fall, we have interpreted the rule to be that if a farmer brings wheat to the mill and takes flour back he can take the full quantity of the wheat without substitutes, but if he has deposited wheat with the miller for more than 30 days, that constitutes a sale and the miller cannot allow him more than 48 pounds of flour at a time and must require him to purchase an equal amount of the substitutes."

Following is a list of flour substitutes, which are to be sold on the "fifty-fifty" or pound for pound plan:

Barley flour, corn flour, corn starch, feterita flours and meals, hominy, potato flour, rice, soya bean flour, buckwheat flour, rye meal, corn grits, oatmeal, rice flour, rolled oats, sweet potato flour. Rye flour is not a substitute.

DEATH OF AGED CITIZEN

George Hunn, who was here from Moreland this morning, told the I. J. of the death of W. J. Wilson, an aged and respected citizen of his section of the county. His death occurred Wednesday and the body was taken to Franklin county for burial. He having moved here from that county. His wife preceded him to the grave but three sons and a daughter are left to feel keenly the loss of a kind and indulgent father. Mr. Hunn says Mr. Wilson was one of the best men he ever knew and that the people of his end of the county are greatly saddened by his death.

WILL MOVE NEXT WEEK

Severance & Son will next week move into their new home—the corner store in the Odd Fellows' building, which by the way, is about the prettiest and best lighted store room in the city. Mr. William Severance, the popular manager of the well-known firm, has ordered many new goods for his store and his line of spring and summer wear for women will be the most complete he has ever shown during the decade or more he has been in business in Stanford.

FATHER AND SON SOCIAL

The interest in the Father and Son movement has increased greatly during this week. The prospect for the social evening on Friday, Feb. 15 is a very good one. The Stanford "lads and dads" look forward to having a good time together. Anyone who can bring fatherless boys and sonless fathers together now will render a helpful service. Remember at the K. P. Hall Friday evening, Feb. 15.

ACEY & BORDERS DISSOLVE

Messrs. J. W. Acey and A. J. Borders, proprietors of the Lincoln Pharmacy, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Borders retiring. Invoicing will begin in the morning. It is probable that Mr. Borders and family will leave Stanford, and the fact that they may do so is generally regretted. The firm has enjoyed a nice trade, but Mr. Borders thinks he can better himself elsewhere.

ANOTHER SALE FOR H. & McC.

Hughes & McCarty, the real estate men, made another sale Thursday, this time selling for Mr. J. W. Acey his place on the Somerset pike containing 30 acres and improved with a good two-story residence and a store-house to Squire J. T. Roberts for $7,500. Squire Roberts also bought Henry Fields' stock of goods which were in the store-room, where he has done a good business. Mr. Fields will move back to his farm.

CLEANING UP THE STREETS

Chief of Police Wood had the jail birds out several days this week cleaning up the streets and Stanford now looks aspic and span. A little exercise for the fellows who wantonly infract the laws of their country will be helpful in making them remember that if they sin again they will be given a little more of the same sort.

A WORD TO MOTHERS

Mrs. E. J. Bedard, Cowich, Wash., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best I ever used. I always keep a bottle in the house for the children. It cures cure for coughs and colds. It heals raw, inflamed surfaces, loosens phlegm, eases hoarseness and difficult breathing, checks racking coughs. Sold Everywhere."

31 TO GO FEBRUARY 25th

The Local Board has received orders to send thirty-one white men to the mobilization camp on Monday, February 25th. This call will be filled out of the Class 1 men, whose order numbers are less than 560.

MAY LOSE EYESIGHT

Speed Best, colored, had the misfortune Monday to have a stalk of hemp pierce the ball of his right eye, and it is feared that he will lose the sight of it.

A Woman's Burdens

are lightened when she turns to the right medicine. If her existence is made gloomy by the chronic weaknesses, delicate derangements, and painful disorders that afflict her sex, she will find relief and emancipation from her troubles in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If she's overworked, nervous, or "run-down," she needs new life and strength. It's a powerful, invigorating tonic and nerve which was discovered and used by an eminent physician for many years, in all cases of "female complaints" and weaknesses. For young girls just entering womanhood; for women at the critical "change of life"; in bearing-down sensations, periodical pains, ulceration, inflammation, and every kindred ailment, the "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine put up without alcohol—ingredients on wrapper.

PALOS, VA.—"Eight years ago this summer I could hardly do anything. It was before our first little girl came. My lower limbs were so badly swollen I couldn't rest any where. I was telling a friend what a condition my limbs were in. She said, 'Take my advice and get some of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.' So I concluded to try it and this is what it did for me. I had only used it about one week when my limbs quit cramping, the veins got better and I could sleep all night, good restful sleep, so I continued its use and had no trouble at all. Four years ago I used it again, and another little girl came almost entirely without discomfort. One year ago I again needed Dr. Pierce's medicine but did not get it as I was in very poor condition financially, and I suffered five days and nights. Now note the difference.

"I will always praise the 'Prescription' in any expectant woman for cramping in limbs and nervousness. It makes you stout and gives extra strength and prepares them for motherhood. I know it has no equal."—MISS CURRY LAM.

THE RED CROSS ON A FIELD OF WHITE

The following is from the pen of Miss Frances Ogilvie, of Princeton, this State, who is a niece of Mrs. J. C. Hays, of this city:

Alone in a dugout, Over There,
Out in a front line trench
Now in the heat of the battle's fray,
Side by side with the French,
Again in a shell hole, yawning wide
Only a soldier's fate—
While over the stretch of No Man's Land

Was chanted the Hymn of Hate,
All night long in the driving sleet
Manning the guns for you—
All day long in the snow or rain
For the Red, the White, and the Blue.

There in the ruins of a Belgian town
Homeless and destitute
Calling its mother, a Belgian child,
The mother whose lips are mute,
She who was slain in a night's raid
As a Boche's bullet fell.

Where is the father? Where indeed?
But God in His mercy can tell.
Is there none to answer the plea for aid?

To hear the cry in the night?
There is something yes, and the sign is this
The Cross of Red on a Field of White.

Over the battle field, bullet torn
Borne by those who dare—
Showing the wounded that God still reigns.

There are those at home who care,
Shall that soldier boy on the Flinders front
Fighting your fight for you
Suffer the pangs of the freezing cold
While the Red, the White, and the Blue

Waves o'er a nation of loyal hearts
With hands that long to do.
We must work for the soldiers Over There,

Work with our hands and heart,
There is knitting and sewing that must be done
And that is the woman's part.
There's a part for the men who cannot go

To help the boy who can,
For there's mercy and love in the heart of him
Who gives to his fellow man.

Will you work? Will you give, Oh, America?
Will you help in the cause of Right?
Will you sacrifice that the emblem live?

WHAT ARE OUR SOLDIERS PAID?

Ask the first ten people you meet what Uncle Sam pays his soldiers. It will be a safe bet they won't know.

Half of them have some hazy idea about a "dollar a day," and you will find lots of people who think Uncle Sam still pays the old scale of $13 a month, but few outside the army know the ins and outs of the wage scale, even for private soldiers.

The whole pay system of the United States army has been revolutionized since the war started.

A private in Uncle Sam's armies, regular, national guard or national army, receives in cash, as long as he is in the United States, $33 a month, in addition to food, clothing and medical attendance.

When he is sent to Europe he gets 20 per cent. extra, whether in training or in the trenches, which brings the minimum cash pay up to $36.90 a month, or $1.30 a day.

The revolutionary part of the pay system, however, about which most people are ignorant, is the scale of allowances made by the government to the soldiers' dependents. We are thus breaking away from the old theory of paying soldiers a flat wage for fighting to the new theory that the nation is responsible for the welfare not only of the man in service, but for the dependents whom he left behind him.

Under this new scheme if "there's a wee wife waiting" she receives each month direct from Uncle Sam $15 a month, which is virtually an addition to the fighting man's wage and brings his total compensation up to $48 a month while he is in the United States and to $54.60 abroad.

If there is one child with the wife, the allowance is $25 a month; two children, $32.50, and so on up to the point where with a wife and six children Uncle Sam pays $50 a month in cash to the family.

It may not be enough to support them, even with what the enlisted man can send home out of his wages, but it is at least a recognition of Uncle Sam's responsibility and a bulwark against dependence on charity.

Allowances are also provided for dependent parents, $10 a month for each, and for brothers, sisters and grandchildren, $5 a month for each, with the proviso that in any case the government will not pay to the dependents of any man more than $50.

No mawkish prudery entered into the drafting of these provisions; by acknowledging his illegitimate child a soldier may secure for it the full governmental allowance, the only provision being that if it is born after December 31, 1917, it must be born in the United States. So in the case of a wife, there need be no legal marriage if there is proof that they have lived together as man and wife for two years prior to enlistment.

Uncle Sam also sees to it that his soldiers do not throw all the burden of caring for dependents on his broad shoulders, by making it compulsory for each who has left a wife or child behind to pay over to them through the treasury at least $15 a month and as much more as will equal the allowances which Uncle Sam makes up to half a man's pay. Thus for the man in service abroad who has left a wife and child behind, the man will have to assign to them at least $19.80 a month to which the government will add $25, making a total of $44.80 which they are sure to receive.

The old pension system is wiped out by the new and far more equitable system of compensation for death and disability.

This compensation differs from that provided in any other law. It takes the family as the unit that is serving the nation, not the individual man. It bases the compensation on the size of the family from time to time. While a totally disabled bachelor gets only $20 a month, the man with a wife and four children will get $75. Twenty dollars is added if a nurse is required; $10 more if there is a dependent widowed mother; but if he loses both hands or both feet, becomes totally blind or helplessly bed-ridden he gets $100 a month as long as he may live whether he is married or not.

If he dies from injuries or disease received in line of duty, the widow, children and widowed mother receive sums ranging from $20 to $75 a month, according to size of family. No distinction is made between a private and the highest officer.

In addition every man may take out insurance up to $10,000 at the actual cost of furnishing such insurance in peace times—the entire nation through the treasury bears the war risk. This insurance is wisely safeguarded to protect it from creditors, shyster lawyers and loan sharks.

Fire destroyed the big warehouse loading platform of the Adams Express Co. in Louisville. Two Pennsylvania baggage cars, loaded with freight, and several passenger coaches were damaged, causing a loss of $100,000.

Mr. Joe Gill, of Nicholasville, was called here to the burial of his brother, Newton Gill.

Services at the Baptist church Sunday and Sunday night.

Mr. Newton Gill died at his home here Friday afternoon at five o'clock after an illness of several weeks from a complication of disease. Mr. Gill was 58 years old and a member of the Christian church. He is survived by his wife and eight children all grown excepting one. After funeral services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Baptist church by Rev. J. M. Robinson, a large concourse of sorrowing friends witnessed the burial in the Preachersville burying ground. Deceased was an upright citizen, a kind and indulgent father, truthful and honest, speaking evil of none, attending strictly to his own affairs and while moving in the humblest walks of life was a gentleman. The writer can truthfully say he never knew a harder working man or one who seemed to more thoroughly enjoy being busy all the time.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT

Save Your Hair! Make It Thick, Wavy, Glossy And Beautiful At Once

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A small trial bottle will double the beauty of your hair. 14-1

AN ESSAY ON EDITORS

A country schoolboy was told to write an essay on editors, says an exchange, and this is the result:

"Don't know how newspapers come to be in the world. I don't think the Lord does, for He ain't got nothing to say about an editor in the Bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you read about and stayed in the bushes until after the flood, and then came out and wrote the thing up and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever died. I never seen a dead one, and never heard of one getting lied.

"If a doctor makes a mistake he hurries it, and people dassent say anything.

"When the editor makes a mistake there is big swearing and a big fuss, but if the doctor makes a mistake there is a funeral, cut flowers and perfect silence.

"A doctor can use a word a yard long without anybody knowing what it is, but if an editor uses one he has to spell it.

"If a doctor goes to see another man's wife, he charges for it, but if an editor goes he gets a charge of buckshot.

"Any old college can make a doctor, but a editor has to be born.—Cass County (Mo.) Leader.

These facts have been demonstrated in Virginia, North and South Carolina, where they have been selling tobacco on this plan for the past fifty years. Drive your wagon to the Danville market. You will always find some one to attend to your wants, and welcome you. During the sale we will do our very best to get you the highest market price for your tobacco. All the large factory buyers are on hand at each sale. We have experienced men in all departments to look after your interests, including two of the finest auctioneers in this or any other state. Our charges for selling tobacco will be the same as last year. The fact that everything else has increased makes no difference here. The warehouses do not buy tobacco except on sale at auction. We do a strictly commission business. Free stables and no rejection fee. Appreciating your past patronage, we hope you will see your way clear to bring us your tobacco, guaranteeing you the highest market prices, absolutely accurate weights and an all around square deal.

In Germany, according to the latest advices, the strike situation has about died out, although discontent is said still to exist. This feeling has extended even to the German troops in Flanders, who are said to have incited Belgian workmen to strike. Seemingly evidence that the peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk are ended for the moment or that they are proceeding without the attendance of some of the chief delegates of the Teutonic Allies is the fact that conferences took place in Berlin Monday between the German Emperor and Crown Prince and the Bulgarian Premier, Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister and Turkish Grand Vizier. That knotty questions are to be solved if possible is also indicated by the fact that after the conference the Emperor presided over a Crown Council.

AT THE COUNTRY'S CALL

I ain't but Seventy—fine an' fit!
Can run a race with the young 'uns yit;
Run my furrow, an' hoe my row,
An' my j'int's don't ache when it's comin' snow;
An' this bein' thiswise, an' that bein' so,
I can fight as I fit in the Long Ago.
When I follered "Stonewall" an' ol' "Bob" Lee,
'Cause I knowed that the war was up to me!
'Give me my gun!' is what I say—
'I'm goin' off to the war today!' That's what I say—an' I'm meanin' it, too.
For it's up to me an' it's up to you,
For to help to see the country thro';
Oh, I'm tellin' you people, there's work to do!
An' I want no place in a rockin' chair
While the boys are fightin' Over There!
When even the Women would fall in line
The prospect's good an' the fightin' 's fine!
Only this word I've got to say:
'It's off to the war for me today!' I'll git in somehow! You're never old
When the country's strong right hand you hold!
When you know there are foes to fight an' kill
An' the country's Trust is in you still;
Then your pulse beats quick, an' it's up you rise,
With the old-time fire in your flashin' eyes!
It's the Country calls, an' you can't deny
To answer: "Here!—for to live or die!"
It's a fight for the country! Hooray!
Hooray!
I'm goin' off to the war today!

Chickens, which have heretofore evaded the tax laws, are now on the tax books of the State. ## KIDDS STORE

The thaw here was accompanied by so little rain that streams were not out of banks.

Growers have succeeded in getting nearly all the tobacco to market and satisfactory prices gotten by all.

There has rarely or never been so big per cent. of corn in the field at this date. Many farmers have been both to advance wages at all proportionately with the two, three, four, five hundred per cent. higher market rates for their products, and took what has proved a losing chance of cheaper help. The oldest farmer never knew a more unpropitious year for maturity of corn. The early freezes have destroyed vitality of the grain as never before and the prudent will not defer selection of his seed ears and test of vitality of every ear before planting. The old standard of a sound cob and heavy ear will entail disappointment and loss as never before. Test every ear. Write Experiment Station at Lexington for instructions if puzzled to devise plan. We grangers are too lax in seeking aid of our scientists, profiting by their demonstrations. The farmer, the hygienist, the sanitarian are the great Human Trinity, the greatest benefactors. Farming deserves to be out at the top of the list of scientific benefactors. Best seeds are of paramount importance. Agriculture may be the best—soil, weather and culture—but lacking good seeds good crops are impossible. Indeed, why don't we select and save all farm and garden seeds? Big seed men who advertise in exaggerated catalogs contract with growers at pound rates and if we knew specimens from which our packets were derived, we would decline them as a gift.

Didn't you say something about a dog law? Such has long been one of our obsessions. The magnetism at Frankfort is malignant. The job of lawmaking, even at half the present per diem is a plum of such palatable sweetness (and nequities) a test makes Little Olivers of nearly all. But the dog is such a factor. Where is a land lord without a dog or a pack of 'em? Any legislation restrictive of dogs is hazardous. Dogs, as dogs, are a nuisance, a curse to Kentucky. Exterminate them and their cousin, the fox. A lamb or a hen is worth more than a pack of current curs. Conserve food by killing the dogs.

A housewife had assembled and packed 13 pounds of choice, 40¢ butter to be shipped to a city friend. Dogs left the carton, in which it was packed, but many greasy spots were there of that five and twenty. Just what she soliloquized any housekeeper knows.

Between here and Hustonville were two near tragedies which make the flesh creep at every mention. Four of our boys stopped on grade approach to bridge at Hustonville to pull a coon driver and auto out of the ditch. When they reentered their car and started it skidded off aboutment, turned turtle on bank below smothering tarp and bed of machine without a scratch on a passenger or engine which nullified the righted wreck in the hospital. A mile north is a bridge in a curve of almost a right angle along a bluff. A driver with two passengers negotiated that curve at such speed he manifestly lost nerve or he came confused, losing control and crashed into a tree on bank of bluff, wrecking his flier with little more than worst scare of their lives to the men. The escape seems simply miraculous.

Dan Riffe is a sparkling eight-year old, of our north suburb, known by many of you, from many angles a prodigy. Dan is 99 per cent. human, awaking distressed by spasmodic crank he flung the bed covers off with "I'm out o' here, I gotta pray." His improvement was attributed to his prayer—in efficacy of which his faith implicit—Wen asked if he prayed during a later attack he nonchalantly answered: "No, I wasn't bad enough."

Mysterious burning of a fine barn months ago, involving loss of a team of mules, much provender and machinery was disclosed by betrayal of one of the thieves who stood guard while his companion stole the chickens. Matches were used instead of flash light and the fire carelessly started and inextinguishable fire. They fled beyond glare and watched the destruction. The confession was meant an accusation in resentment, supposedly without realization of informer's equal guilt.

The labor problem of the nation is alarmingly acute and intensified by enlistments and draft. Never as now the vast army of vagrants should be driven into ranks of producers. If the Alvenson vagrant law, which was praised at passage doesn't meet present exigencies amend and enforce.

Dogs, vagrants and rats invite immediate extermination. And while our censors are conserving print paper by prescribing pages of daily issues, let them convert our cheapest and best into an octave daily with

CARRANZA'S DEFIANCE

President Carranza, of Mexico, did not realize it, but under existing circumstances, when he sends "your majesty," the Hun Kaiser, "my most cordial congratulations," and expresses his "best wishes for your personal happiness and that of your august family, as well as for the prosperity of this great, friendly nation" (Germany), he is playing with fire.

Nobody can doubt Carranza's motive in sending that message to Berlin.

It was not sent so much to felicitate the Kaiser and compliment Germany as to slap at President Wilson and insult the United States.

Nobody is fooled by his subtlety; it is plain—the intent and purpose are clear of understanding as why twice two make four!

For is there any doubt that German intrigue prompted the message. Carranza, perhaps better than any one else in the world, knows what a great debt of gratitude he and the Mexican people owe the United States.

Carranza knows as well as anyone else that he owes his tenure in the Mexican presidency to the United States; that it was the United States and this country alone, that did most to bring order out of chaos at a time when Carranza knew not from one day to the next what moment he would be subjected to the fate of Mulero!

And now for that he bites the hand that helped him. He skirted the brink of an open declaration of hostility as near as he dared.

Now, let him take warning, because just a little more—and the marvelous patience and tolerance of President Wilson and the American people will snap!—Atlanta Constitution.

Don't Play Blind Man's Buff When Buying Life Insurance

A search with open eyes will satisfy you that the policies of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., contain special and peculiar advantages not combined in the policies of other Companies—Low Premiums, Largest Cash Values and Dividends.

Don't think for a minute that all Companies are bound to be good. That is the argument of the agent of some inferior company.

In the fourteen years I have been agent for the Mutual Benefit, I have paid out several Thousand Dollars in death claims to beneficiaries who would not have received a cent had the deceased had his insurance in any other Company. One of these was paid right here in Stanford within the last two years.

Every member of the Mutual Benefit is sure of fair and liberal treatment under all circumstances and no matter what happens he will get his money's worth, for it is all put down in the contract.

"CORNER NEXT TO COURT HOUSE"
STANFORD, KY.

The legislature adjourned Friday (14th) morning, Monday being a legal holiday, because Abraham Lincoln was born on the 12th of February. It is not known what day was taken on Saturday unless the session was adjourned until the 15th. Already 350 bills have been introduced in the house and 250 in the senate, many of them for fun, which will never be heard of again.

The New York Stock Exchange quotes Liberty bonds at $95.80. The government should not permit it.

Nat B. Sewell, inspector and examiner, threw a firebrand into the Legislature the other day by replying to its demand for information as to the wastes in the various departments by saying that the members themselves were the greatest money wasters, as in the 22 days, they had been in session only a short time on 10 days, making not exceeding 36 hours of service for which they had drawn an average of $7.35 an hour or equal to $58.64 for a day of eight hours. A number of members hopped to their feet and denounced the assumed right of the official to criticize the august body and several grew red in the face in characterizing the report as an outrage, since most of the members were serving the state at a great sacrifice, which latter claim is of course poppycock as most of the members never got as much as $10 a day and mileage to and from the capital before in their lives. The tempest in a teapot rages fiercely till Gov. Stanley issued a statement that he would not have permitted the report to have been presented had Mr. Sewell submitted it to him. He also took occasion to say that the members were paid a sum grossly inadequate and that their right to adjourn at will is a constitutional privilege. All the same Mr. Sewell deserves credit for calling public attention to the dilatory methods of the legislature which will have the effect of stirring the body to better action. Mr. Sewell is doing great good to the state in showing up the waste of the people's money by their officials and in many cases making them disgorge. Keep it up, old man, the voters are with you.

If you are a vagrant or a whisky seller, you'd better more on.

Former Governor Folk, of Missouri, who lost out politically in that State and secured a place at Washington through the influence of William Jennings Bryan, who supporter he was, has lost his job, Director of Railroads McAdoo having abolished the sinecure and other useless snags. It is given out that Mr. Folk resigned, but his case is like the Irishman, who gets mad and quits when his employee took his name off the payroll. Folk cut quite a dash in politics some years ago, but he soon dropped out and became what is known as "dead duck."

Some fellow, who probably had nothing more important to do, has introduced a bill in the Kentucky Legislature to combine the offices of circuit clerk and master commissioner. The Interior Journal is against the bill for a number of reasons, the greatest of which is it gives circuit clerk too much power, as well as too much work. It would be just as well to combine the county and circuit clerk offices, or the sheriff and county judge. As the master commissioner only gets a per cent, on the sales he makes and costs neither the State nor the county anything, we see no good reason for combining his office with that of the circuit clerk, which would be to literally abolish the office of master commissioner.

Mrs. Louis Lindram, the accomplished wife of the former editor of the Danville Messenger, has accepted the position of social editor of the Danville Advocate. It is needless to state that she will more than make good. Her husband continues very ill, which is a sad thought to his many friends all over the State.

The whisky seller and the vagrant have a rough road before them if they persist in their devilment. They had better choose between getting away and getting busy. It matters not which.

DESECRATING LINCOLN DAY

The so-called celebration by the republicans of Lincoln Day by a banquet in Louisville is much better described as a desecration of the day. Underneath a thin veneer of patriotism a mass of disloyalty was apparent and nearly every speaker showed that the real object of the gathering was to boost the republican party and lay the ground work for the election of Congressmen this fall and the President next time. They all pretended that they wanted to whitewash Lincoln, but their actions and their words made it plain that they want to whip the democrats. Compromises were made between Lincoln and Wilson, largely to the disparagement of the latter, who was roundly abused for not putting republicans in the most important offices. One of the sneakers said he was for Wilson, as there was no one else to be for, and he was none other than the man who pardoned the Goebel assassins. When the name of Roosevelt was mentioned in one of the speeches the banqueters, either because of enthusiasm or wine, arose to their feet and shouted themselves hoarse, like a lot of ignoramuses, although Roosevelt is the most potent agent of the Kaiser in America and gives utterance to sentiments that would cause a less prominent man to be tried for treason. The whole thing was a very disgraceful affair, considering the fact that we are in war and that patriotism and not partisanship should prevail.

The National Democratic Committee has approved of the Susan E. Anthony amendment to the constitution providing for woman suffrage and urging favorable action on it by congress. The old Romans used to say that the times change and we are changed by them and the action of the committee is proof of it. The last National convention endorsed woman suffrage, but said it must be adopted by the separate action of states, the Democratic way. President Wilson changed front on the question and now the committee falls in behind him, by a vote of 28 for the amendment, 14 against and six states not recorded.

The Hon. Billy Klair, of Lexington, is heading a movement to get the legislature to speed up the adjourn by March 1. This is good of Billy, but he is guaging a lie. The Kaiser and all his armies could not get that body to adjourn before the constitutional limit, which is March 20, though if it would it would save the taxpayers $1,500 a day and cause a shout of gladness to reverberate from the Big Sandy to Mills Point. But legislatures are not built that way. They use up all the time allotted and then set the clock back.

Under the new revenue law chickens are taxed and a dispatch from Frankfort says the state will receive $30,000 from this new source of revenue. By the way, Dr. Hoover has ordered that on and after Feb. 23 there shall be no trading in live or freshly killed hens and pullets. The object is to increase the egg production and permit them to be put in cold storage this spring and summer at reasonable prices. May be a good idea, but it is pretty tough on those who have a tooth for chicken.

Gen. Pershing recommends that the extra pay for aviation, because it is extra hazardous be taken out, as it is not near as hazardous as trench service. He claims that the improvement in flying machines by war necessities has made aviation one of the safest branches of the service, but it will take a great deal of proof to convince us and the most of those who have thought differently that with so many chances against him a man is as safe in a flying machine as on the ground or in it.

The Mountain Echo, published at London since the memory of man is not to the contrary, has been discontinued, or rather absorbed by the Sentinel, another republican paper. When Editor A. R. Dyche had the Echo its reverberations could be heard far and near, but in later days it had not been so well taken care of. May be the owner of the Sentinel, who also owned the Echo, had method in his madness when he let the Echo slowly peter out.

The state tuberculosis commission is asking the Legislature for an increased appropriation and it is to be hoped that it will be granted. The board has done remarkable work with what was given it by the last assembly and with more money it will be able to carry out the excellent plans for more efficient fight against the plague than it has been able to make. By all means grant the increase, that man's most insatiable enemy may be combatted in every way.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. The snow that covered the ground for two months left the wheat in splendid condition and farmers all over the State are encouraged over the prospect of a fine crop. There is fortunately, it seems, a compensation for all of our ills, even in the worst and longest cold spell that living man has ever experienced, during which the mercury went below zero twelve times.

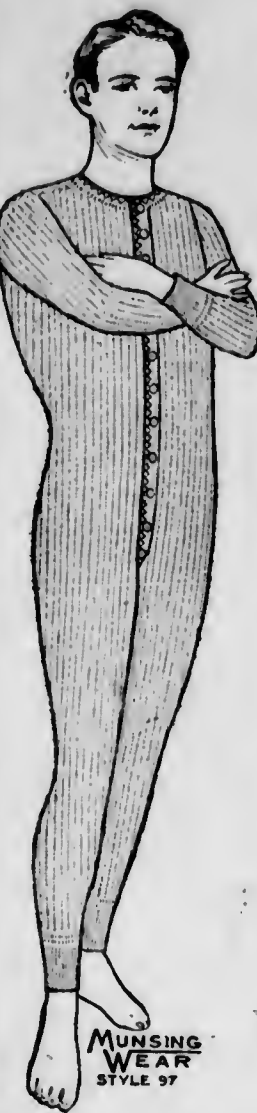

Senator Hitchcock is the last senatorial jackass to bray at the president, but as he until recently opposed the increase of the army and did other things in the interest of the Kaiser, he does not count as much as the other men who are throwing mud at the president. His effort is doubtless to obtain a little notoriety as he is of the class that has to do something foolish to be noticed at all.

Eld. D. W. Scott, pastor of the Christian church at Somerset, has been admitted to the Pulaski county bar. Eld. Scott says he does not expect to become an active member, but that he appreciates the fellowship of the legal lights.

IDLENESS NOT TOLERATED

County Judge T. A. Rice, County Attorney T. J. Hill, Jr., Sheriff H. C. Baughman, his deputies, Marshal Geo. T. Wood and Judge Davison are to be commended on their move to get a stop to idleness in and around Stanford. On Wednesday morning a list of those who "toil not neither do they spin," was obtained and warrants issued for some of them on the charge of vagrancy. Allen Hill and Jeff Bryant, colored, were among the number, and each gave bond for his appearance at circuit court. Jordan Hill, father of the former, went his bond and Bryant put up the cash. Other arrests will follow from time to time and the idler who has no visible means of support will either have to go to work or get out of Stanford. Farmers and others are complaining that it is almost impossible to get work done, notwithstanding big prices are offered. With 30 to 40 per cent. of last year's corn still in the shock and hemp ready to break, the farmers are facing a condition which can only be relieved by making a certain class work, and this class should and will be made to get busy.

After months of absence on account of special treatment for a malady, Republican congressional floor leader Mann is back on the job. He was not missed, however, except it took one from the list of Republicans who call attention to themselves by criticizing the administration. Mann is one of the smallest and meanest of them all.

Carranza sent a most gushing message of congratulations to the Kaiser on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind and the Mexican chief realizes that he is not much more safe in his job than the bloody butcher of Germany. Toadies with both the beasts.

The solon who made it a business to offer bills to hamper the railroads is conspicuously absent from this session of the legislature. Since the government has taken them over, his occupation has gone glimmering.

If you want to secure a good picture of Gen. Grant, manage to get hold of a $10,000 bill. The likeness of him on it is said to be very natural.

Garrard county officers are going after the vagrants, having taken the cue from Lincoln's efficient officials. Better late than never, however.

WORST WINTER IN YEARS

Snow, wind and extreme cold caused more colds this winter than in years. Foley's Honey and Tar proved its worth in thousands of homes. Mrs. Edward Strevey, R. 37, Clinton, O., says: "I think Foley's Honey and Tar is the only medicine for coughs and colds and recommend it highly." Fine for children. Sold Everywhere.

Secretary Daniels has appointed a Christian Scientist a chaplain in the navy and there is much adverse comment.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES

Middlesboro is planning a street railway. Cincinnati capital is said to be assured.

Mrs. Sam Earnes died at her home in the Brookstown section of Madison, aged 77.

James Roe Cox, one of the oldest and best men in Garrard county, is dead. He was 89 years old.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, formerly of Lancaster, is dead in New York, where she had lived for some time.

Edwin P. Morrow, of Somerset, has been engaged to defend Deputy U. S. Marshal Eubank who killed a merchant named Ringo at Mt. Sterling.

J. S. Mullins, of Winchester, was elected president and Reuben Cropper, of Lexington, secretary. Thomas Paul, of Paris, treasurer of the State jailers' association at a meeting held this week in Frankfort.

The first man accepted in the coast-to-coast drive for volunteers for shipbuilders by the Federal Government was Dr. T. L. Gambelin, a physician of Burnside, according to the United States War Department.

June Hansford won in the jailer's contest in Pulaski county over John Brent Vaughn, who ran as an independent. Hansford beat him nearly 3,000 votes but Vaughn contested on the ground that the former did not file his certificate of nomination with the county clerk not less than 15 days before the election.

MARRIAGES.

William McKinley Hundley obtained license Thursday to marry Miss Inez Williams, also of Kings Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Nave, of Shakerstown, have announced the engagement of their sister, Miss Edna Lipps, of Hustonville, to Mr. H. H. Patton, of Princeton, W. Va. The marriage will take place in New York this evening. Miss Lipps is a daughter of the late Mr. D. M. Lipps who for a number of years was a resident of this county, moving from here to Hustonville. She is an attractive girl with charming personality and is pleasantly remembered by many girlhood friends in this county. Mr. Patton is a prominent merchant of Princeton and one of its leading public spirited citizens. Miss Lipps has been with friends in the East for several weeks and Mr. Patton has gone on for the wedding. They will return in a few weeks to Princeton to make their home.—Harrodsburg Democrat. Miss Lipps is remembered by many Lincoln county people, who knew her when she lived at Hustonville.

Fire broke out in the east wing of the main building at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., did $300,000 damage, and for a long time threatened to destroy the entire building.

An arial mail service between Washington and New York will probably be established during the coming summer. A special postage rate will be charged.

TO SING FOR THE SAMMIES

To receive word that his third child, a daughter, the only one who was not in the nation's service, has been called, is the experience of G. A. C. Rochester, 1230 Fifteenth avenue north. Mr. Rochester was informed in a telegram from New York recently that his daughter, Mary Louise, has been appointed to the American committee of the Y. M. C. A. to take charge of the entertainment of the soldiers at the United States army headquarters in France. In her message notifying her father of the appointment, Miss Rochester asked her father's permission to accept and he responded immediately stating she could go when needed.

Miss Rochester is now in New York studying music. She is with her mother, who will return to this city soon after her daughter's departure, some time the middle of February. Miss Rochester has spent the last three years studying music in the East, and has become known for her work in concert and as an accompanist. She has studied in Europe also. She last sang in this city during the summer of 1917, which she spent with her parents at their home here.

Two brothers of Miss Rochester are serving in France. Junius is with the aviation corps and has been at the front since last October. The younger brother, Alfred, is with the engineers and has only recently arrived at the front. Post-Intelligencer, Seattle, Wash.

There is no stock, bonds or anything else that will beat investing in land and surely nothing safer. READ and ACT. Delays are dangerous. These bargains cannot stay on the market long at these prices. And the longer you wait to make an investment the more you will have to pay. Get in on the ground floor before it is everlastingly too late. Those who tell you to wait and land will be cheaper are still living in the "Summer of '61" and are simply not posted on the affairs of the present day.

GOV. STANLEY URGES ENROLLMENT IN SHIPYARDS

The need for shipbuilders in the shipyards of the Government is recognized by Governor Stanley in the following letter, written to Edward W. Hines, chairman of the State Council of National Defense, Louisville:

"I am very much pleased to know that carpenters, iron workers, electricians and other persons needed in the shipbuilding industry, are promptly registering in the city of Louisville and in many other places.

The vital need of the hour is ships and more ships and ships without delay. The enormous demand upon the resources of this country is due, in a great measure, to the fact that meat, wool, wheat and other breadstuffs, can not be secured from Australia or Argentina on account of the scarcity of ship and the long distance which these things must be transported in the few vessels that are still available for this purpose. The rehabilitation of our Merchant Marine will at once furnish the vitally needed succor to our Allies and, in a measure, relieve pressing demand upon the scant supplies of the United States.

"Carpenters, iron workers, electricians and others, by registering do not subject themselves to any compulsory process. They simply advise the Government of the number of such men available and enable it to get into closer touch with them. It is the patriotic duty of every man, who by trade or training is capable of assisting in this work, to immediately comply with this reasonable request. The lives of many brave soldiers may be spared and morale of whole armies maintained by the patriotic effort of the shipbuilders of the United States.

"Kentucky's quota of shipbuilders is placed at 3,500. It is expected by the Government that this number will be registered by Monday, February 18. I trust that every patriotic Kentuckian will comply with this suggestion of the Government before that date. Very truly,

A. O. STANLEY, Governor.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. J. F. MILLER

One of the saddest deaths which has occurred, was the passing of Mrs. J. F. Miller, on Jan. 29, 1918, aged 55 years, three months and 17 days.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lawson, of Garrard county.

On Feb. 10, 1881, she was married to Mr. Miller of the same county. To bless their union were born seven children, four daughters and three sons, who are all grown and married, except two daughters. Mrs. Miller is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. W. T. Richardson and Mrs. T. W. Naylor, of Parker, Ind.; Misses Elizabeth and Mae Miller, of this county; Messrs. Arthur and Walter Miller, of this county and Mr. Frank Miller, of Parker, Ind. She is also survived by five grandsons, but one of them had just passed over the river and had gone to the better world before she was taken away.

Mr. Miller was a member of the Baptist church at Preachersville and trusted in her Lord. The words Mr. J. C. McClary and prayers of Rev. Roberts were most appropriate and brought comfort to the aching hearts of the husband and children and others who loved Mrs. Miller so well. May they soon be brought to a realization that He doeth all things well and that our loss is her eternal gain. The funeral service was conducted at the Baptist church at Preachersville, Friday, February 1st, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Preachersville to await the resurrection morn. May God's blessings rest upon each and every one of the family.—Husband and Children.

STANFORD WIFE DOING GOOD WORK

"I have been bad off with stomach and liver trouble and bloating for many years. No doctors or medicine helped me. On the advice of my druggist, I bought a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy and I don't want to miss a single dose. It has given me more benefit than all the medicine I have ever taken. I feel I am doing good to recommend it to others." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Lincoln Pharmacy and The Penny Drug Store. 14-1

Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my household work."—Mrs. B. B. ZIELINSKA, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. JOSEPHINE KIMBLE, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

JOAB AND AMASA

We ought to bring peace to the world. We shall seek in every way to do it. Such an end was achieved yesterday in a friendly manner with an enemy which beaten by our armies, perceives no reason for fighting longer, extends a hand to us and receives our hand. We clasp hands.—The German Kaiser, descending upon peace with the Ukraine.

And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand; so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground and struck him not again and he died.—II Samuel, xx., 9-10.

So the Ukraine would better watch out. That handclasp is too utterly similar to the beardclasp of Joab. In fact, one need not stretch the imagination too much in seeing the Kaiser model his works with the Ukraine upon the very ingenious device of Joab. In fact, we shall not have long to wait ere we hear the outcry of the modern Amasa. But the world will be busy; and it will be true that Amasa will have to wait until other big jobs are attended to. We can but hope that life will not be quite extinct in Joab's victim before the war is over.—Louisville Times.

CURE FOR WHAT, LUNACY?

Emperor William's personal headquarters are to be transferred to Spa, the Belgian watering place near the Prussian frontier, according to statements in the German press, says the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Amsterdam. The Emperor expects to take the cure there for a short time, it is said.—Louisville Times.

You Can't Rub It Away; Rheumatism is in the Blood

Liniments Will Never Cure.

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will?

Do not try to rub the pain away, for you will never succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain, and go after that. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain. You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease.

S. S. S. has never had an equal as a blood purifier and scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drug store, and get on the right treatment to-day. If you want special medical advice, you can obtain it free by addressing Medical Director, 23 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

CRAB ORCHARD

Mr. Proctor is not much improved from last week's report.

Mr. Henry DeBorde is recovering from a most severe attack of grip.

Miss Lillie Garner, of Cedar Creek, was in town Wednesday shopping.

Messrs. Ed Dyehouse and James Herria were in Stanford Wednesday.

Mrs. Sam Tatem has returned from Louisville and is getting along nicely.

Miss Catherine Middleton has been real sick with a severe cold for some days, but is out again.

Messrs. Shelby Newland and Raymond Bell were in Stanford Sunday to see some of the fair sex.

Rev. Stout preaches at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night and we hope a good crowd will hear him.

Mr. Claud Thompson, who is rapidly improving will leave for Iowa soon. His father, Mr. Thompson, of Bee Lick, will go with him.

Beautiful spring like weather has been prevailing almost making the horrible, cold gloomy times we have passed through seem something like a nightmare.

Shelby, son of Mr. W. D. Newland, is one of the best nested boys on the war issues in town, and tells the facts in a most sensible way. He is full of patriotism too.

Mrs. Will Pettus went to Mt. Vernon with Mrs. Robert Thompson Tuesday and spent a most pleasant day with Mrs. Poynter. Miss Tanna came home with them.

A card from Mrs. W. J. Edmiston, who is at Auburndale, Fla., states she is enjoying the beautiful weather of that place and wishes all her Crab Orchard friends could be there too.

Dr. Burin came over from Campbellsville Saturday to get his auto which was left here. He is delighted with his new home, the people and the school. Says his children are rapidly advancing.

"The Union Depot" and "Singing Shule" will be given by Mrs. Robert Thompson's Sunday school class. The Lydia's Daughters in a couple of weeks, so everyone can be sure of some fun.

The remains of the baby of Mrs. Sazie Baugh, of Detroit, were sent here for interment Thursday. This is the third baby to die and much sympathy is felt for the parents in their loss. Mrs. Baugh was Miss Susie Post, of this place.

The members of the Red Cross are meeting each Wednesday at the Springs with Mrs. Willis and a great amount of work is being done. Mrs. Willis provides an excellent dinner for all who attend and a finer, more determined band of loyal workers would be hard to find.

A friend of little Edward McCarty, son of Mrs. George Harris, sends in the following rhyme composed by Edward:

"Faiser Bill went up the hill
To shoot the president of France,
But Kaiser Bill came down the hill
With bullet thru his pants."

"The warm weather is doing much good. Both our Sunday Schools are better attended and the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church, which met last Monday with Mrs. Frazier Hunt, had 21 members present, all good workers. The Baptist Aid was also well attended but we failed to get the number present."

The Christian Endeavor was led by Miss Ellen Moore Sunday evening at the Christian church. A good attendance and quite an interesting program. Our Juniors are not meeting at all and this should be conducted again, as the little ones were most enthused with their work, which was showing such improvement in them all. We hope the leaders will see the great mistake they are making, and again take up this most important work for the little ones' sake.

Now Is The Time To Be Careful

"FATHER AND SON" WEEK

This has been set aside as "Father and Son" week.

It is not a "campaign" to collect a lot of money for some purpose. It is merely a movement to stimulate anew the relations between the fathers and the sons of America—to bring dad and the boy together in a new sort of way.

This may seem strange, such a movement as this, but is it not true that in thousands of cases the father knows less about his boy than a dozen other men on the same block?

It is not that the father loves his boy less than he used to, or that he would not, if need be, spill his very heart's blood for him. But some how or another, the demands and distinctions of modern life are gradually breaking up that sweet companionship which should exist between the boy and his dad.

The two see each other, maybe, at breakfast. They lunch at different places and usually at the evening meal they gather around the same board and talk about things of common family interest. The boy's place in the conversation is not usually of much personal importance to him, or greatly for his advancement.

Hence, instead of a closer community of interests between the father and the boy, barriers are actually erected between them, in thousands of homes, and the true relationship is not appreciated until some day the one or the other of them suddenly answers the final summons, and then there dawns upon the survivor the realization that he has not only lost one of his dearest possessions, but through long years he neglected and cast aside a very well of love and good fellowship.

The boy who is chummy with his dad seldom goes wrong. The boy who shares with his father the joys of the excursions afield, who camps and fishes with him, who is made a confidant and who is conscious of the fact that there is nothing in his life too insignificant to be of interest to his father—such a boy will pay the old man dividends richer than all of his stocks and bonds.

This great war has brought a new atmosphere into our lives. Money does not seem to weigh as heavily as it did. Wordly honors are relatively insignificant now. Men and women are asking themselves many questions about life which are strange to them. Sorrow has come to many households, and sorrow deeper still is yet to come. Thousands of boys have gone to other lands to fight nobly for the preservation of our liberties.

Thousands of other boys, too young as yet to go, but who may leave before the conflict ends, now more than ever need that father love which many of their brothers may have failed to get.

Let us hope that during this "Father and Son Week" there may be a widespread revival of the true relationship of sire and son and that the boy in such cases will find that home, not some counterfeit resort, will be the fountain source of his daily joy.—Lexington Leader.

FLOUR AND MEAT SAVED

Hotels and restaurants throughout Kentucky saved 75,342 pounds of flour and 69,524 pounds of meat during November and December, according to reports in the hands of J. W. Burns, chairman of the Traveling Men's Division of the Kentucky Food Administration, and with a stricter observance of the food regulations the administration anticipates a saving of double those figures, since practically all the hotels, restaurants and boarding houses in the State are now pledged to observe meatless and wheatless days. With the return of warmer weather, Mr. Burns expects greater economies than ever because the fishing season will have opened, hens will have commenced to lay and spring chickens will be on the market, furnishing more meat substitutes at more reasonable prices.

SEN. JAMES TALKS ROADS

Commissioner of Public Roads of Kentucky, Rodman Wiley, has received the following letter from Senator James, whose interest is shown in road matters.

"I am glad to have your letter of the 4th instant asking me to give you my opinion as to the importance of building good roadways in our State. I feel that this is a movement that is worthy of the united support of the people of Kentucky. It is a well known fact that any section of country develops much more rapidly if the roads are in good condition, making it accessible at all times of the year and greatly facilitating buying and selling operations.

Good roads are uplifting to civilization. They bring the motor to the door of every man daily, they open up the way to the church and the school houses for all classes.

At a time like this when every resource of our great Nation should be utilized to the uttermost, it seems to me that it is highly important for our highways in Kentucky to be put in such condition that the products of our farms, our dairies, our mines, etc., could be easily transported to the markets of the cities and to the railroads to be sent out for distribution generally. I shall be pleased to co-operate with yourself and other public spirited citizens in Kentucky in every way possible to further the building of good roads.

With kindest regards, I am, Very truly, your friend,

OLLIE M. JAMES.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught."

Theodor's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it!
